

IRA Qualified Charitable DISTRIBUTION

When planning your year-end giving, you may want to consider making a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) from your IRA.

ARE YOU
70 ½
OR OLDER?

WHAT IS A QCD?

A Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) is a direct transfer of funds from your IRA to a qualified charity. QCDs can be counted toward satisfying your Required Minimum Distributions for the year, as long as certain rules are met.

HOW TO GIVE

It's easy - just notify the custodian of your IRA and provide them our information:

Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA
PO Box 4469
Washington, DC 20017
EIN: 13-1624090

WHY GIVE WITH A QCD?

Making a gift with a QCD is a tax advantageous way to support the AMS. A QCD allows you to give from pre-tax assets with your gift not being counted as taxable income, and your gift satisfies your Required Minimum Distribution!

CONSIDERATIONS

While many IRAs are eligible for QCDs, there are requirements, such as being 70½ years old or older to be eligible to make a QCD. For a full list of considerations, please contact your IRA custodian.
